Dear Mr. Lederberg:

Thank you very much for your letter of April 27 expressing interest in the article which appeared in
"The Reporter" magazine.

Unfortunately, the statistics which you mention
have not been made available to the Subcommittee on Health and Safety or to the public. I am going to make a concentrated effort to have these statistics made public and I agree with you that the American motorist is entitled to this information.

With kindest personal regards.

Sincerely yours,

Kenneth A. Roberts
